Eureka's Andy Clayton left everyone else in the dust during the Humboldt-Del Norte boys' golf season finale at the Eureka Municipal Golf Course on Tuesday shooting a 69.

Clayton topped all golfers with a final of 513, twenty strokes better than second-place finisher Marley Dellamas from Arcata.

But McKinleyville as a whole took top honors in the team portion, shooting a 383 to finish with a team total of 2,765.

Arcata finished second as a team with 2,843.

The Panthers earned the automatic section qualifier while Arcata heads to the section qualifier along with Clayton, fellow Logger Robert Canepa (11th overall golfer with a 584 season total) and Del Norte's Luke Polidore (ninth overall golfer with a 580 season total.)

At season's end, the top 12 individual golfers received medals and the top seven made the All-County list.
