Having a primary hand in St. Bernard's North Coast Section Division IV title win, Andrew Ayers was named the Humboldt-Del Norte Little 4 MVP by the league on Saturday.

Arcata's Tim Couch and Eureka's Greg Allen took the co-MVP honors over the Big 5.

In the girls portion,

McKinleyville's Sage Romberg took home the MVP crown in the Big 5 while Hoopa's Kin-sin-tah Joseph earned the honor in the Little 4.

The St. Bernard's boys basketball team earned two additional first-team players in Josh Geneviro and Nick Dalby. Hoopa had two players named in Dion and Roman Hutt while Ferndale showcased a pair of relatives as well in Jesse and James Slade. South Fork's Luke Wilhelm rounded out the Little 4 first team.

The Big 5 boys' first team saw Arcata earn two more selections besides Couch in Ryan DeHart and Conor Bryne. Eureka's Randy Olson and DeMarcus Coleman joined Allen on the first team.

McKinleyville had two selections in Chris Pender and John Stull, while Fortuna landed Skylar Rice and Ryand Hudson to the list. Del Norte rounded out the team with Cody Hoffman and Taylor Duncan making the first team.

Over in the girls, McKinleyville had two players join Romberg on the Big 5 first team in Kaila Johnson and Heather Lovelace. Fortuna added a pair with Mallorie Franco and Kelsey Jacobs. Eureka (Kelly Kime and Lorena Reynolds), Arcata (Rebekah Matteri) and Del Norte (Lauryn Lesina) rounded out the first team.

In the Little 4, Hoopa's Winter Nelson and Sara Chase joined Joseph. South Fork had a trio of players (Brittany Neill, Taylor Neill and Ginger Wojcik) make the team while St.

Bernard's (Haylie Chase and Brittany Borges) and Ferndale (Jodi Grinsell and Brianne Miller) rounded out the team.
