

Hannah Pichulo recently received the Soroptimist Student of the Month award for Casterlin School. Staff at the school report that Hannah is an all-around great student. She is self-motivated, and never procrastinates. Besides being on the Honor Roll, Hannah is involved in basketball and baseball. She exhibits great citizenship, and is a good friend. Hannah is shown receiving her award and gift certificates to local businesses from Soroptimist member Susie Jennings.